

Search for and claim unclaimed money

We just thought we would let you know of an opportunity to potentially get an early Christmas present.

You can search for unclaimed money through myIR or through the Inland Revenue website, using the name of a person or organisation. If you're claiming for yourself, myIR is the quickest and easiest way.

More information on the process for searching and claiming unclaimed money can be found here.

